THE ROVER SPORTS REGISTER: the friendly Rover Club with a great tradition

To help you, we offer :-

- Coverage of all Rover models, old and new
- Comprehensive Spares coverage
- Technical expertise
- National Network of Regional Meetings
- Extensive Programme of Rallies and Events
- Access to Library plus Technical Publications
- Insurance Scheme
- Haynes Manual scheme
- Internet presence - www.thersr.co.uk, we have an on line forum
- A First class Bi-Monthly magazine plus additional publications – like

- Workshop Manuals and Parts Lists for early cars

The Rover Company never published a workshop manual for either the P2 or P3 But the RSR has published manuals, one for P2 models (1934 - 47 vehicles) and one for P3 models (1948/49 Rover 60 and 75)

The workshop manuals cover the Engine, Water Pump, Clutch, Gearbox, Freewheel, Gear linkage, Front Axle and Steering, Brakes, Chassis Lubrication, Electrical aspects, Carburettor, Distributor, Chassis, Instruments and Bodywork and Restoration. Later cars are catered for by the RSR's Haynes manual scheme.

- Parts Lists

The Rover Sports register have reprinted the P2 Parts lists for 1934-1938 and 1939-1947, covering all models and the P3 Parts list for 1948 – 49 cars.

- ALSO -Club badges and regalia

Please see the list elsewhere on this form.

- AND - other books and special offers

In addition we have at a very advantageous price, VERY limited stocks of anthologies and books as listed :-

How you can help us:-

Please let us have a photo of your car for our photographic archive.

Do you know of any specialist repairer or source of spares, or can you offer any skill in the service of the club? Please give details after section 7 in notes from New Member, continue on a separate sheet if necessary
